

K-Love teaches my child to love others. Treat others as you would have them treat you. If it were to be removed, that positive influence to my daughter and other children will also be removed! I believe it is in the public interest b/c we need more positive role models for our future generation. K-Love definitely is one!